Attorneys Return to Their Roots at Dickie McCamey

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. ("DMC") is pleased to announce that J. Lawson Johnston and Scott D. Clements have re-joined the firm.

Mr. Johnston and Mr. Clements, who had left DMC three years ago as part of a group that started a new law firm, are returning to the firm at which they both spent the majority of their legal career. Mr. Johnston and Mr. Clements enjoyed a 30-year and 12-year career at DMC, respectively.

The two attorneys return to a Dickie McCamey that is expanding its footprint and increasing client interaction and service.

"That old saying, 'Hindsight is 20/20,' rings true," says Mr. Johnston. "Scott and I realized after being away from Dickie McCamey that we missed being part of the large, integrated team. Remembering what we enjoyed as part of a mature organization with strong support, and deep relationships, became clear after the experience of a start-up."

Managing Director Jeffrey Wiley acknowledges the warm welcome back the two attorneys are receiving. "Scott and Lawson are both well-respected professionals, and there is a lot of excitement about their return."
