Dickie McCamey Expands Its Oil & Gas Team

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C., (DMC) a national, full-service law firm, is pleased to welcome Ryan S. Welsch as an attorney in its Pittsburgh office. Mr. Welsch joins the Real Estate and Energy Groups with a particular focus on services provided by the Oil, Gas and Mineral Services Group. He handles all aspects of mineral title work inclusive of due diligence projects, complex heirship and curative action, along with land-based petitions in addition to a concentration in certified title opinions. His real estate practice covers both commercial and residential transactions.

Mr. Welsch comes to Dickie McCamey after practicing at a regional law firm. He has developed his own privately-held development company built upon his experience and knowledge of the real estate industry. With a business owner's insight, Mr. Welsch possesses a unique perspective that is beneficial to Dickie McCamey's real estate clients.

Pittsburgh Shareholder-in-Charge, Christopher Lee, sees Mr. Welsch's talent at generating new business as a great asset to Dickie McCamey. "He's an excellent lawyer that approaches issues with the view of a businessman. His goals align with the firm's values making him a perfect fit at Dickie McCamey."

Mr. Welsch received his J.D. from the Duquesne University School of Law. He earned his bachelor's degree at The Pennsylvania State University. He is licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.
