Sally A. Frick is a shareholder of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. She concentrates her practice in the area of health care law, with a particular emphasis in medical malpractice law. In this capacity, Ms. Frick represents an array of hospitals and health care providers in the region, including nationally-recognized institutions, as well as physicians and nurses. She has acted as lead trial counsel and tried several matters to successful defense verdicts.

In addition to her litigation practice, Ms. Frick also counsels hospital and physician practice group administrators on policies and procedures and other issues of regulatory compliance.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Frick served as a law clerk at Dickie McCamey. She is the current Chair of the Personnel Committee and former Chair of the firm's Associates Committee. Ms. Frick is an active member of the firm's Employment Committee and Pro Bono Committee. She is the Chair and Coordinator of the Protection From Abuse Project.

Ms. Frick is a NITA (National Institute for Trial Advocacy) trained trial attorney.
