Samuel R. Grego is a principal of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. and is the Founder and Co-Chair of the firm's Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy Group. Mr. Grego is also the coordinator of the firm's pro bono activities.

His practice is concentrated in the areas of bankruptcy, creditors' rights, collections, and commercial transactions. He has extensive experience in complex commercial and corporate Chapter 11 reorganizations as well as in Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 cases. He has represented secured and unsecured creditors and debtors in all aspects of reorganization cases including initial emergency issues which arise upon the commencement of a case, claims filing and administration, negotiations with committees, executory contracts and leases, plan and disclosure statement formulation, negotiation, and enforcement. He has also litigated numerous types of cases in bankruptcy courts including relief from stay matters, claim disputes, valuation of secured claims, preferences and fraudulent conveyances, and dischargeability issues.

Mr. Grego has represented large regional financial institutions in a wide variety of collection, foreclosure and execution proceedings in both state and federal courts. His practice also includes providing defense representation in federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and cases arising under similar state statutes. He also counsels lenders in commercial and consumer lending transactions, including initial documentation and subsequent workout situations and collection.
